INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

RECEIVED

OCT 11 2019

chief electoral office

To the members of the Alberta Party Political Association,

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the Political Party Campaign Period Financial Statement (the "Form") of the Alberta Party Political Association, which is comprised the campaign period financial statement and schedules and notes to the Form. This Form has been prepared by management based on the financial reporting provisions of the Election Finance and Contribution Disclosures Act – Alberta.

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the Political Party Campaign Period Financial Statement of the Alberta Party Political Association is prepared, for the campaign period beginning February 1, 2019, and ending June 16, 2019, in accordance with the Election Finances and Contributions Disclosure Act – Alberta.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

In common with many not-for-profit organization, the party derives revenue from fundraising activities and contributions, of which the completeness and classification is not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, verification of these revenues was limited to the amounts recorded in the records of the party. Therefore, we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to fundraising activities, contributions, and the party's campaign period surplus.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1 to the Form, which describes the basis of accounting. The Form is prepared to assist the Alberta Party Political Association to comply with the financial reporting provisions of the Election Finances and Contributions Disclosure Act – Alberta. As a result, the Form may not be suitable for another purpose.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Form

Management is responsible for the preparation of the Form in accordance with the Election Finance and Contribution Disclosures Act – Alberta, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of the Form that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the Form, management is responsible for assessing the Party's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters relating to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Party or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Party's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Form

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Form is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this Form. As part of an audit, in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Form, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Party's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Party's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements, or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Party to cease to continue as a going concern.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
